THE BRIDGE ACROSS THE POTOMAC. - A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Alexandria county was held last night at the school house at Ball's Roads, Squire H. A. Whallon in the Chair, and J. E. Clements, Sec-

The minutes of the last meeting were read from the report of the Gazette and approved. The committee appointed at the last meeting to consult with those gentlemen who inaugurated the movement about three years ago and that a number of the gentlemen referred to were present.

Mr. T. H. Sypherd was called upon and reperied what he had done in the matter, and his remarks were endorsed by Messrs. F. G. Schutt, Capt. H. Dwight Smith and others. Upon motion of Mr. G. R. Adams, the action of those gentlemen was endorsed and a sub committee of seven appointed to act in conjunction with them.

Capt. Snow, of Washington city, a practical engineer, who was present, was called upon, and pronounced the Aqueduct bridge as unsafe, and gave some excellent advice to the committee as to the best course for them to OLD DOMINION COMMANDERY AT PETERS-BURG - From all we can hear, and it gives us pleasure to note the fact, the late visit of Old Dominion Commandery, Knights Templar, of this city, to Petersburg, was a grand success. The Commanders was under the immediate command of its Eminent Commander, F. A. Reed, who, owing to the unavoidable absence of Captain General Shinn, assumed the duties of that office in addition to those of his own, and their proficiency in drill, and their gentlemanly deportment, won the admiration of every one, and to it was universally conceded the credit of being thought the youngest one of the first Knights Templar Orders in the State. This appreciation was shown in the selection of its Eminent Commander as Senior Warden of the Grand officers, a well-deserved compliment both to the individual and to the Command. On its return the Commandery was met at the depot in Richmond by Richmond Commandery, No. 2. escorted through the principal streets of that city to Dove Lodge Hall, on Broad street, where a magnificent banquet was spread, after which the Command was escorted back to the depot and took the train for home, arriving here at 8 o'clock last night, on the steamer Keyport, the band playing "Home Sweet Home" as the boat approached her wharf. Prof. Donchs' Band, of Washington, accompanied our Sir Knights, and gave such entire satisfaction that a vote of thanks was tendered it by the Commandery on their arrival. The Grand Commandery will meet in this city next November, at which time we may expect to see the most imposing display ever witnessed in our city.

IST SENATORIAL DISTRICT. - A correspondent of the Washington Republican, writing from Vienna, Fairfax county, says:

The political issue in this Senatorial district has at length been made up, and each party has a full ticket in the field. The Conservative convention more than a month ago announced as candidates. Sinclair, of Prince William, and Caughton, of Alexandria, -and that of the Republican party only on Saturday last-O'Neal, of Alexandria, and Williams, of Loudoun; and better men than all four of them could scarcely have been named by their respective parties for the Senate of Virginia. It had been hoped by the Conservatives and neutrals (or independents) that the Republicans would make no nomingtions, or, at the worst, would only recommend some semi Conservatives or quasi Rejublicans. but that "little game" seems about played out, at least for the resent. The same anticipations were indulged respecting the county convention at Fairfax Court House on the 27th ultimo, when a streight out Republican was nominated. The Republicans of this district are beginning to consider that defeat in the present crisis is far preferable with a true man than an illusive triumph with a recreant Republican or a renegade Democrat. The First Senatorial district embraces the counties of Alexandria, Fairfax, Loudoun and Prince William; and Senators, on Tuesday, November 2, are to be elected for four years. There is a Democratic majority in each of these counties named except Alexandria, which has a Republican majority of about three hundred. In the entire district the Democratic majority is about six hundred. "THE LODGE OF WASHINGTON."-P. G. M.

W. II. Lambert, of this city, has received from the Secretary of the Grand Lodge of this morning. Pennsylvania, the following letter:

"Allow me to congratulate your committee on the very elegant manner in which they have not out "the Lodge of Washington." In artistic fact that of Indian Summer, which, the weatherfinish it is a book that will compare very favorably, indeed, with any of the numerous histories that have come out in the past five years. The book is not only very handsomely gotten up and admirably compiled, but is intrinsically of great value, especially to our citizens. Copies can be obtained by application to Mr. Lambert, at the Citizens' National Bank, or at Mr. Geo. E. Freuch's book store.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING -The wedding of Mr. Boyd M. Smith, of this city, and Miss Lizzie Pickerill, of Georgetown, took place at Christ Church, in the last named city, yesterday evening, at 5 o'clock, and was attended by a large and fashionable company. The cere-mony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Williams in the most impressive style. The following were the groomsmen: Lloyd Smith, Dr. Robert Cabell, Edward Robinson, Randal Hagner, Linden Kent, D'Arcy Paul, Dr. Michael, and Mr. Pickerill. While the bridal party were entering the church a most enchanting solo was sung by a member of the choir. The wedded pair, with their friends, then repaired those who enter here." to the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Esau Pickerill, where an elegant and sumptuous entertainment awaited them, and remained there until 11 o'clock, when the happy pair took the train for a tour through the Western States.

POLICE REPORT. - The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday afternoon: Elizabeth Stors and Mrs. Fortner, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, were fined, and in default of payment, will be sent to the work house; Mary Odell and Malvina Beall, for assaulting and beating John Henry Johnson, of Washington, all colored, were fined and discharged upon the payment of cost.

John Wesley King, a colored boy, for stealing a pistol from the Captain of the steamer Fairy, was locked up to await the action of the authorities of Prince George's county, Maryland, in which county the theft was committed. Ten lodgers were accommodated at the station house last night.

ALEXANDRIA LIBRARY DIRECTOR'S MEET-NG. -It will be seen from a notice in another column of to day's Gazette, that a meeting of the directors of the Alexandria Library Company is called for to-morrow evening at eight o'clock. It is understood that an energetic movement will be made during the fall and winter to place the Library upon a firm basis. No plan, however, can succeed unless there be a cordial co-operation of the directors, and as an evidence of their interest in the welfare of the Library it is expected that every director will be present at the meeting.

Woods on Fire .- The woods of Messrs. Henry and Edward McWilliams, on the old Mount Zepher estate, a few miles below the city, in which were piled up about two thousand cords of cut wood, were fired by an unknown party night before last, but by the assistance of the neighbors, who turned out in large numbers, the flames were extinguished before more than fifty cords of the wood had been destroyed.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY. - An unsuccessful attempt was made yesterday to rob the money drawer in the office of the toll collector of the Alexandria canal, at the canal basin. The drawer contained twenty-five or thirty dollars, but the would-be thief, after breaking the lock, it is supposed, became alarmed and ran off, as none of the money was missing when the attempt was discovered.

Death of Frederick Hudson. Boston, Oct. 31.-Frederick Hudson, wellknown as a previous managing editor of the New York Heral, died at 5 o'clock this a. m. from the effects of injuries received last evenidemies, to bless the land with abundance of ing at Concord, Mass. About a quarter past rain, and to hasten the time when all mankind | five o'clock he was approaching the Monument street crossing of the Middlesex Central Railroad, seated in a covered buggy with Judge Jno. S. Keyes, who was driving, when the flagman warned them of the approach of a train, and they stopped long enough to let the engine pass. Being deeply engaged in conversation, and not thinking that the cars were coming after, and that a flying switch was always made at this crossing, they started to cross as soon as the engine had passed. The cars struck a hind wheel and throwing Judge Keyes into the street rolled Mr. Hudson inside the buggy along the track about 20 feet, and down a slight embankment, receiving fatal injuries. Judge Keyes was considerably bruised. Mr. Hudson retired from the management of the New York Herald on account of the feeble health of his wife. He was 56 years of age, and leaves a widow and an only son. The coroner has summoned a jury to inquire into the occurrence.

L EDGER'S FLUID (RED), THE UNI-VERSAL DISINFECTANT. (Permanganate of Soda.) It is the only true disinfectant known, all other preparations sold for this pur-pose being merely deodorizers (or articles which possess the property of overpowering unpleasant smells by their own pungent and often disagreeable and dangerous qualities.) It is particularly adapted for disinfecting sick rooms in cases of typhus fever, small pox, cholers, scarlet fever, diarraces, and all contagious diseases, and for puritying rooms in which there are dead bodies. purifying rooms in which there are dead bodies, removing at once all unpleasant smells, and destroying effectually any latent germs of disease. By placing the diluted fluid in dishes or basins, about bed chambers, school rooms, work shops, hospital wards, &c., it keeps the air in a perfect state of purity. For stables, slaughter houses, butchers' shops, dairies, cellars, &c., it is invaluable, keeping them in a perfectly wholesome state, by merely sprinkling the diluted fluid over the floors and walls. It keeps luted fluid over the floors and walls. It keeps dust bies, water closets, drains, urinals, &c., sweet and wholesome, by using once or twice a day. For sale by JANNEY & CO; see 13 145 King street.
